Cap Construction

Traditional cap construction features a fine net material in the top area with an open cap in the back. Weftings attached to stretch elastic lace make the open back create better ventilation to keep the head cooler. A Traditional cap or wig utilizing components of this type of cap construction is often referred to as a “machine-made” cap.

Open Cap/Featherlight
Open Cap is commonly referred to as a “capless” wig due to the lack of net material in the top area or a Traditional cap and as a result making the wig better ventilated throughout. The entire cap is produced with weftings attached to thin stretch elastic lace. This exclusion of the netting used in the Featherlight cap creates super lightweight wigs that are exceptionally cool and comfortable to wear.

Lace Front
A lace front wig has a hairline made of a fine lace mesh in which each hair is individually hand knotted. The lace varies in width from ¼ to 1½ inches. The lace typically extends across the entire front hairline but on occasion may extend from ear to ear. The benefit of lace front wigs is an extremely realistic hairline that appears as a hairline but on occasion may extend from ear to ear. The benefit of lace front wigs is an extremely realistic hairline that appears as a "machine-made" cap.

A Monofilament Top (Mono Top) allows for multidirectional styling and parting the hair on the left, right or center creating amazing styling versatility and resulting in an extremely natural-looking appearance. A Mono Top feels smoother against the scalp than a Traditional or Open Cap and more comfortable as a result. Often a Mono Top will have a polyurethane strip in the front of the mono area to help create a more secure fit.

Lace Front with Lace Front
A Monofilament Top with Lace Front wigs are produced the same as a Mono Top wig but adding a Lace Front as well to create the most natural front hairline in conjunction with the realistic characteristics of a Mono Top. This allows for amazing off the face styling versatility as well as the flexibility to part hair on the left or right or in the center to achieve multiple styling variations. These wigs offer the most natural and realistic appearance due to the combination of the Mono and Lace Front.

Monofilament Part
A Monofilament Part (Mono Part) cap contains a wide Mono Part area on a machine-made cap and allows the wearer to style a conventional part or a more fashionable zigzag part on the left or right or in the center to achieve multiple parting the hair variations. These wigs are often referred to as a “capless” wig due to the lack of net material in the top area or a Traditional cap and as a result making the wig better ventilated throughout. The entire cap is produced with weftings attached to thin stretch elastic lace. This exclusion of the netting used in the Featherlight cap creates super lightweight wigs that are exceptionally cool and comfortable to wear. A Lace Front can be utilized on wigs of any type cap construction.

Hand Knotted
A Hand-Knotted wig is also referred to as a Hand-Tied wig. Hand-Tied wigs are made with a soft stretch lace base and rows of the fiber is individually hand knotted onto the lace base. This type of cap is lightweight and exceptionally comfortable as the low felt soft against the head. Hand-Tied wigs are produced with a Mono Top making them extremely natural-looking as well and making this type of wig the most luxurious available.

Monofilament Crown
A Monofilament Crown (Mono Crown) cap contains a Mono area in the top area of a machine-made cap. This allows for the fiber in this area to have a more natural and realistic appearance as it is woven on shorter wigs styles in the crown or in the center area of a style that is flatter and with less volume in the top.
